ORDER REGARDING OBJECTIONS TO PROPOSED EXHIBITS

The Court ORDERS that any good faith objection to the other party's proposed exhibits identify the specific basis for the Objection; this includes describing the proposed exhibit, as well as articulating the basis of their objection (i.e. Federal Rule of Evidence). The Court will not accept as an Objection, the boilerplate language, "Object as to foundation, relevancy, authenticity, and contains privileged and/or private matters" contained in Defendant Fieger's Objections.

A proper objection will describe the specific exhibit, and then describe the specific good faith basis for the objection. Such Objections shall be filed by 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday April 9, 2008.

SO ORDERED.
